

Notification dated 27th August 1957.

No. 153—57-58. Notice is hereby given to the inhabitants of Malavalli Town Municipality, that the Municipal Council, Malavalli, have resolved at their meeting held on 27th August 1957 to adopt and introduce the following Bye-laws on the basis of the Model Bye-laws framed by the Government.

Detailed draft bye-laws are given below and also duly published on the Notice Board of this office which are available for information and inspection of the public in the Municipal Office during office hours.

Any inhabitant of the Municipality objecting to the undermentioned bye-laws may send his objection, in writing to the Municipal Council, Malavalli, within one month from the issue of this notice. Objections received later will not be considered.

Bye-laws for regulating the use of Slaughter Houses for slaughtering animals in the Town Municipal limits, Malavalli, under Section 48(1)(a) and (b) read with Section 151 of the Mysore Town Municipalities Act, 1951 on the basis of the model bye-laws framed by Government in their Order No. L. 11702-ML. 152-52-10, dated 20th October 1952.

Bye-Laws.

1 Butchers and others shall have access to the Municipal Slaughter houses for the purpose of slaughtering animals for sale or private consumption on the conditions hereunder specified. Only licensed men will be allowed in the slaughter house for the purpose of dressing the carcass. These persons will be provided with a badge once a year by the President on payment of one rupee. A list of such licensed men will be hung up at the slaughter house and a copy maintained by the President.

2 None but those engaged in the slaughter of animals and Municipal Officers and Councillors shall have access to the slaughter house.

3 No person shall be permitted to perform the duties of a Mollah or Rubbi in a Municipal slaughter house except with the written permission of the President.

4 No dog shall be allowed into a Municipal slaughter house. Every dog found there shall be made over to the police to be dealt with as a stray dog.

5 No animal which has not been permitted to be slaughtered or which is not meant for immediate slaughter shall be brought into a slaughtering shed, in a Municipal slaughter house.

6 Every person desiring to make use of a slaughter house shall pay the prescribed fee before entering it.

7 Every animal intended for slaughter at a Municipal slaughter house shall be brought thereto not less than one hour before the time fixed so as to admit of examination by the Health Officer, Veterinary Inspector and the subordinate assisting them.

8 Animals, which upon such examination are found to be free from disease, shall be slaughtered in a Municipal Slaughter house.

9 Every animal, which upon such examination, is found to show symptoms of disease, or is suspected of being diseased, shall not be admitted to the slaughter house premises but shall be kept under observation.

10 Every animal found upon such examination to be suffering from any infectious or contagious disease, shall be seized and dealt with as provided in bye-law 29 infra.

11 No animal that is or suspected to be with young shall be slaughtered at a Municipal slaughter house.

12 Animals shall be slaughtered only in the allotted space in the slaughter house and no other.

13 No animal shall be slaughtered in a Municipal slaughter house except during such hours as may from time to time be fixed by the President and notified in a conspicuous place in the slaughter house.

14 The carcass of every animal which has been slaughtered in a Municipal Slaughter House shall after it has been skinned, be carefully examined to ascertain, if it is free from disease. The skin shall be likewise similarly examined.

15 Every carcass, which upon such examination is carcass not showing signs of infections or contagious disease shall remain the property of the owner.

16 Every skinned carcass, which after examination is found to be free from disease and fit for human consumption, shall be allowed to be quartered or cut up.

17 No person shall blow by means of insufflation the carcass of animals slaughtered for human consumption.

18 All meat and offal, which upon such examination are found to be deceased considered unfit for human consumption, shall be seized and dealt with as provided in bye-law 29 infra.

19 The skins, entrails and offal of slaughtered animals which have not been seized, shall be collected in a special offal room in the slaughter house, there to be washed and cleaned before their removal.

20 All refuse or offal rejected by the owners of the slaughtered animals shall be deposited by them or their assistants in a Municipal offal truck or bin.

21 The solid contents of the entrails shall not be washed into the sewers but shall be removed by the owners of the animals or their assistants and deposited in a municipal offal truck or bin.

22 Skin, offal, entrails, etc., left at the Municipal slaughter house after such hours as the President may fix shall be considered as refuse and shall become the property of the Municipal Council and be disposed of, as the President shall direct.

23 No person shall sell meat, skin or offal on the premises of municipal slaughter house.

24 Meat, entrails and offal which are fit for human consumption and permitted to be removed from a Municipal slaughter house, shall be removed in covered baskets or prescribed carts and such markets or carts together with their covers shall at all times be kept clean.

25 No person shall make noise, fight or quarrel or use insulting, abusive or obscene language in a municipal slaughter house. Persons contravening this bye-law shall be summarily rejected.

26 The fee payable for the slaughtering of each animal in municipal slaughter house shall be as detailed in the following schedule.

	Rs. a. p.

27 The Veterinary Inspector in the employ of the municipal council shall be in charge of the municipal slaughter houses in Malavalli Town and shall see that no diseased sheep or goats are slaughtered therein for food or their carcasses removed to the municipal markets or other recognised licensed places for sale.

28 The Veterinary Inspector shall carefully inspect each and every animal brought for slaughter daily, whether for private consumption or sale to the public, and satisfy himself that such animals are perfectly healthy before he admits them into the slaughter house.

29 The Veterinary Inspector shall also examine the carcasses of animals slaughtered in the slaughter house, and shall destroy or bury at such time and place as may be appointed by the President or the Health Officer, any carcass or organ or any part of the carcass that he may find diseased and unfit for human consumption (as wholesome food) with the previous sanction of the President, Vice-President or any other Officer authorised by the President.

30 The Veterinary Inspector shall stamp all carcasses before they are removed from the hanging rooms to the stalls in the Municipal Markets or licensed mutton stalls in the town, in token that they were passed out of the slaughter house as fit for food. The Veterinary Officer/Inspector shall be careful to see that all carcasses brought for sale to the markets bear the slaughter house stamp. The contractor or the Health Inspector shall do likewise where and whenever practicable. The Veterinary Inspector, Health Inspector or Contractor shall report every case in which a carcass does not bear the said stamp, and shall at the same time forward an explanation which the person in possession of such carcass may offer for the orders of the President.

31 Any person who slaughters any sheep, or goat which has not been inspected and passed by the Veterinary Inspector, or slaughters before or after the hours fixed for the purpose or removes any carcass before 6 A.M. and after place for sale, or to his house, or who offers any opposition or resistance to the Veterinary Inspector or his peons, the contractor or his servants or to the Health Inspector in the execution of their duty, shall be liable on conviction before a Magistrate to a fine not exceeding Rs. 20.

32 The Veterinary Inspector shall look after the conservancy business of the slaughter houses and shall inspect the slaughter houses daily between the hours of 6 A.M. to 10 A.M. and 1 P.M. to 2 P.M. respectively and furnish a report to the President by 4 P.M. of the result of such inspection.

33 No carcass or any portion of a carcass of any sheep or goat slaughtered outside the limits of the Town Municipality shall be sold in any of the Town Municipal markets, or any part of the Town by the owner or person in possession thereof, without the carcass being first examined by the Veterinary Inspector of the Town Municipality and the prescribed fee being paid to the contractor for the same and whenever is found in possession of, or vending such carcass, or any portion thereof, in contravention of these provisions, shall be liable on conviction before a Magistrate to a fine not exceeding Rs. 20.

34 No carcass or any portion of a carcass of any sheep or goat slaughtered outside the limits of the Town shall be supplied by any person or persons to any of the Town hospitals and hotels or eating houses without such carcass being first examined by the Veterinary Inspector of the Town Municipality and the prescribed fee being paid to the contractor for the same, and whoever is found in possession of, or vending such a carcass or any portion thereof, in contravention of these provisions, shall be liable on conviction before a Magistrate to a fine not exceeding Rs. 20.

35 The President or Vice-President shall issue a permit to any person applying for permission to slaughter sheep or goats within the limits of Municipality without license, or without payment of any fee for the purpose of the following festivals or religious ceremonies, on such applicant furnishing sufficient grounds for the indulgence sought, and the Veterinary Inspector shall notice in the slaughter house return on each and every occasion that such permission is given, the name, the residence of the persons to whom a permit has been issued and the number of sheep or goats allowed to be slaughtered.
